Scares that Care

Nightmare Circus Thriller Dancers are a group of "Scares that Care". Our goal is to make our community a better place through our weekly classes and flash mobs for charity events. If you are interested in joining the ranks of the "two left feet, no heartbeat"; no experience is necessary, just the willingness to learn, have fun and have a great new exercise routine!

Every Wednesday, from 7-8 p.m., at the Edmonton Native Healing Centre (11813 123 Street), we run free of charge Thriller dance classes. All ages are welcome, but minors must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

For more information click here. or phone Pocky at 250.618.0542

Just present your Inglewood Community League membership card at any facility and get:

- 20% of an annual adult, family, child, youth or senior pass; or
- 20% of a Continuous Monthly Pass; or
- 15% off of a Multi Admission Pass (minimum of 5 visit passes).

Tips on Reporting Crime

If there is a crime in progress (imminent threat to person or property) call 911.

If it isn't an emergency but you notice suspicious activities or crimes report them to the Edmonton Police Service at 780-423-4567 or call #377 on your mobile phone.

This includes:

- Break & enter to detached garage or shed
- Theft from vehicle (under $5000)
- Damage/vandalism to property or vehicle
- Lost property and theft under $5000

Safer Communities And Neighbourhoods (SCAN) SCAN helps Albertans to take back their neighbourhoods and deal with problem properties. A member of the SCAN unit will confidentially and discreetly contact you about your concerns.

If you see suspicious property in your neighbourhood, do not investigate it or approach the occupants. Report the property by either:

- Calling the SCAN toll-free line at 1-866-960-SCAN (7226); or
- Filling in the SCAN Complaint form on the SCAN website.
